Membership : Health Check

Many of our AFP Legacy contributions have dropped off Insight!

Just a quick shout out to our kind and generous membership who contribute through workplace giving; and to those who have been thinking of assisting us, but haven't gotten around to it just yet.

We are seeing a drop in payroll deductions and have been made aware that a number of your contributions have dropped off Insight!; this is potentially due to the end date being specified and not being entered as 'on-going'.

To ensure your valuable giving remains current, please check the following:

- Go to Insight!
- Select 'Payment Details'
- Select 'Deductions'
 - If 'AFP Legacy' is not showing, please consider reinstating/commencing
 - § Select 'Add Deduction'
 - § Select 'AFP Legacy'
 - § Select 'On going'
- Check the 'To Pay Day' box
 - If it shows 'Unlimited' all is good!!!
 - If a specific date, consider selecting 'On going'

Thank you to all those who contribute to AFP Legacy; without you we could not help our members in the ways we do.

Assisting AFP employees and their immediate family...

Some examples of ways we CAN assist:

- Assist with medical costs associated with a terminal diagnosis
- Assist with travel costs for treatment of terminal/life-threatening disease
- Provide meal deliveries for person suffering from effects of cancer treatment
- Financial assistance for life-saving operation
- Financial assistance for funeral costs
- Financial assistance for emergency medical travel

Some examples of ways we CANNOT assist:

- Finance home services for person suffering with a non-life-threatening injury, e.g. broken arm
- An employee's parent requires their care and the AFP employee is seeking financial assistance for time off work, medical, travel costs etc.
- Financial assistance for home repairs
- An employee who is seeking a gift/donation for a colleague doing it tough in their personal relationships
- An employee seeking assistance to cover travel costs to visit an ill cousin
- Financial assistance to repair a fence at home

Legatee Family Music for our Legatees

A group of Canberra veterans wanted to share the positive power of music with kids who have been doing in tough in the Canberra community. AFP Legacy were approached via the Volunteers In Policing Team by Colin Greef, an Ex-Navy man who hatched the idea through a Soldier On guitar group. Colin and his team repair old guitars and donate them to families in need. Two of our AFP Legacy Legatees, Jack and Chris O'Donohue, pictured with Mum Emily (AFP K9 Team), Colin Greef and Mike Hogan, were the recipient's of this generous donation. The two boys can now jam together. One of the guitars donated was previously owned by a Victorian Police employee who passed away following a battle with brain cancer. Chris and Jack sadly lost their father, David, to the disease in 2013.

Sincere thanks to Colin, Mike and team for their generosity and kindness.

January Kids Camp Review Meet Legatees, Lincoln & Lachlan Banks

Lincoln

What did you enjoy most about your first Camp?

The high ropes.

What was the biggest challenge you faced?

The big flying fox because it was really high but Owen worked with me to help me do it – thank you Owen.

What you would say to an AFP Legacy Legatee who was contemplating going on the next Camp?

I would say do it because it is really fun and everyone there is really encouraging.

What would you like to say to the AFP Legacy members who donate to our Charity to make these camps possible?

Thanks so much and because of you I was able to meet a whole new support network to help me through my journey.

Lachlan

What did you enjoy most about your first AFP/NSW Police Legacy Camp?

The flying fox because I went upside down and it was fast.

What was the biggest challenge you faced on Camp?

Was making friends and talking to people.

What you would say to an AFP Legatee who was contemplating going on the next Camp?

Don't be scared – it is heaps of fun.

What would you like to say to the AFP Legacy members who donate to our Charity to make these camps possible?

Thank you – the camp was so fun and I really enjoyed it – Keep donating!

Big thanks Lincoln and Lachlan for your review.

Hi, I am Eleanor and I am 16 years old and currently in Year 11. My mum (Rachael) and I are about to undertake the challenge of completing the Kokoda Track in April, in memory of my father, Martin Ryan. Dad was a proud and courageous policeman with the Australian Federal Police. Sadly, my father died by suicide due to severe depression and PTSD when I was 4 years old and my twin sisters, Annabelle and Georgina, were 2.

Our Kokoda challenge is kindly being supported by AFP Legacy. AFP Legacy have been wonderful with their ongoing support shown to myself, my sisters and my mum. The support comes in so many different ways such as assisting with paying for school fees/supplies and providing fun opportunities, with the twice-a-year camps which me and my sisters look forward to and love. These are just two of the many ways that AFP Legacy supports all legatees and their families. Sometimes we don't need AFP Legacy assistance, however mum regularly says that just knowing that Legacy is there gives her peace of mind.

Please help us to raise funds for the amazing AFP Legacy. All donations, big or small, go directly to AFP Legacy who have generously provided this opportunity to help me commemorate my dad. Many thanks, got to run as mum is calling out for me to join her with stair training.

Volunteering for our AFP families in need

Meet AFP Legacy Volunteer, Cindy Rech

What do you enjoy most about volunteering for AFPL?

Just the feeling of being able to help and support AFP families in need however I can, through raising money or assisting with administrative tasks and provide an awareness of what the AFP Legacy does.

How long have you been volunteering for AFPL?

Since May 2018.

What is your role within the AFP?

Team member, Project Coordination, IO HUMINT.

Why do you volunteer to support our AFP Legacy families in need?

It makes me happy to help support a positive difference to someone's life, however large or small.

Thank you Cindy, we are so appreciative of all you do for AFP Legacy. We're extremely lucky to have you on board.

Office Administrator – AFP Legacy

The Office Administrator (OA) is a revised position on-staff at AFP Legacy.

The OA will be responsible for the management of the AFP Legacy office location and utilities, financial and administrative duties, and business planning. The role is designed to assist the AFP Legacy Board of Management and staff, with the day to day running of the AFP Legacy office.

This position requires a high degree of confidentiality, self-motivation and flexibility in terms of time management and commitment.

The OA works alongside and in conjunction with the Event and Marketing Coordinator and the Family Liaison Officer, with all positions working in support of each other and collectively supporting the Board of Management. The OA position reports to the AFP Legacy Staff Team Leader.

Please Note: This is not an AFP position; this is a part-time role with a not-for-profit charitable organisation and comes with an individual employment agreement.
